Tyler Colbourne Inspiring Communities

Tyler is a creative, dynamic, and accomplished leader with a passion for social justice. He is a recent graduate of Dalhousie with a Bachelor of Social Work, having completed his degree after 18 years of trying. Tyler is an eager community volunteer and received the Caring Canadian Award in 2015 and the Sovereign Medal for Volunteers in 2016 in recognition of his many years of volunteering. For the last 16 years, he has worked in non-profit, tourism, communications & marketing, and the creative arts. His combination of experiences provides him with a comprehensive view of the challenges and opportunities of partnership and collaboration for community change.

Tyler believes that to address today's and tomorrow's complex social challenges people need to collaborate with courage and radical optimism. A more just and harmonious world is attainable and when we collaborate, anything is possible. Tyler works as the Community Director with Inspiring Communities and supports systems change, social innovation, and collective impact projects across Atlantic Canada.
